Dear Ms. Groedel,

On behalf of the Advisory Board of the Litigation Counsel of America (LCA), it is my honor to advise you of your selection to become a Fellow in the society. The LCA is a trial lawyer honorary society whose membership is limited to less than one-half of one percent of North American lawyers, judges and scholars. Fellowship in the LCA is highly selective and by invitation only. Fellows are selected based upon excellence and accomplishment in litigation, both at the trial and appellate levels, and superior ethical reputation. The LCA is aggressively diverse in its composition. Established as a trial and appellate lawyer honorary society reflecting the American bar in the twenty-first century, the LCA represents the best in law among its membership.

Your invitation is being prepared at this time, and you should receive it within the next few days. We sincerely hope to include you as a Fellow in the society. Fellowship is also accompanied by complimentary memberships in the Diversity Law Institute and the Trial Law Institute.

You may learn more about the LCA, review Ohio's current Fellow delegation and consider the various opportunities within the society at www.litcounsel.org. Given your outstanding reputation and extensive experience in litigation, we also look forward to including you in one of our honorary trial orders or perhaps working with you in one of our practice specialty institutes.

Please call me on my cell (646.734.0878) should you have any questions or to simply discuss our marketing elements and opportunities.

Thank you.

Yours very truly,
